C. Lea el correo electrónico que Gonzalo envió a su amiga Maritza y luego conteste a las preguntas.

Maritza, How are you doing? I was sick last week. I had the flu, I think. After two days, I called my doctor's office to make an appointment. It was about 7:00 PM. When I heard the voice on the phone, I started to talk. But the voice just kept talking, telling me to press different numbers. It was an answering machine!

I couldn't understand anything. I listened to the whole message and then I hung up the phone and went to bed. I stayed in bed for two more days.

I didn't go to the doctor but I feel better now. Next time I'll be ready for the answering machine. Best, Gonzalo

1. When was Gonzalo sick?

2. What was wrong with him?

3. What time did Gonzalo call the doctor?

4. Who answered the phone?

5. Did Gonzalo make an appointment?

6. How does Gonzalo feel now?

Dear Gonzalo,

I'm glad you 1. (are/were) better now. Listening to the message on an answering machine 2. (is/was) usually difficult. Sometimes you 3. (could/can) listen to the message again. At the end of the message, the voice 4. (will/is) give you directions. It will say something like, 5. "(Pressing/Press) 1 to listen to the message again." Then you can listen to the message again and again—until you 6. (understand/understood) it! This 7. (happened/happens) to me almost every week. Take care and I 8. (will not/will) call you next week.

Your friend, Maritza
